Brazos Valley Museum of Natural History Invites You to See the Stars! Friday, January 22, 2010 from Sunset to 9:00 pm

BRYAN, TX --- The Museum, along with professional and amateur astronomers representing the George P. and Cynthia W. Mitchell Institute for Fundamental Physics, Brazos Region Astronomy Service Society (BRASS) and the Brazos Valley Astronomy Club, invite the whole community to share a magnificent evening of night sky viewing. The Museum's current exhibition, "From Earth to the Universe," will also be open for special late night viewing, just in case star gazers need to come inside and warm up! Regular admission for the star party is $5 for adults, $4 for seniors and students, 3 and under (and current Museum Friends) are free.

Come take advantage of this opportunity to experience a professionally guided viewing of the night sky! We are located in the Brazos Center, 3232 Briarcrest Drive, Bryan, Texas, just behind the new Target on Hwy 6. To learn more about this programs and other activities, displays and events, please contact the Museum at 979-776-2195 or visit us on the web at www.brazosvalleymuseum.org.

Beginning January 1, 2010, the Brazos Valley Museum of Natural History is open to visitors Tuesday-Saturday 10am-5pm. The admission fees: adults $5; seniors/students/children $4; children 3 and under are free. The first Tuesday of each month is Dollar Admission Day.
