T. REX ART CHALLENGE

Submit your dinosaur drawing to our T. REX ART CHALLENGE by April 15 for a chance to win a free Museum Membership for one year!

Have you got a T. rex-sized talent for drawing? Why not help us celebrate our first annual T. rex Roundup by entering the Museum's T. rex Art Challenge! You can draw, paint, or color any type of dinosaur to enter. The winning entries in three age categories will receive a free Museum Membership for one year.

Eligibility: The T. rex Art Challenge is open to children in grades PK through 8.

Rules:

- Only one entry per artist. Each entry must be the sole work of the artist.
- Entries should be original works of art (no tracings or computer generated material). Artwork must be two dimensional, submitted on flat paper – please do not roll or fold. Entries should be no larger than 18 x 24.
- Any medium can be used (pen and ink, crayon, paint, pencil, pastel, watercolor, etc.).
- Entries should have the following information securely affixed to the back: name of artist, age, grade, telephone, address.
- Entries must be received by April 15, 2009.
- Three winners will be selected, one from each grade group (PK-2nd, 3rd-5th, 6th-8th).
- Copies of the entry form must be submitted with each artist's entry.
- Entries will not be returned but may be picked up after June 1, 2009. Uncollected entries will become the property of BVMNH.
- By entering, the artist gives the Museum permission to use their artwork for promotional/non-commercial purposes. All entries may be publicly displayed by the Museum.
- Judging will take place at the T. rex Roundup, Saturday, May 16, 2009. Artists need not be present at this event to win.
- Entries will be judged based on creativity, originality, use of color, use of space, and clarity of image.
